

In the event of official government restrictions announced in the host or originating country that affect the dates of charter, a reschedule could be arranged free of charge. In the case, that a reschedule does not suits the clients' needs, we will issue a credit note/voucher, valid for 18 months, for their payments.

Clients could use it for any future booking for any of our boats. The clients are responsible for communicating their travel restrictions, any delays or no-shows will be treated as a non-refund cancellation.
